If golf is your game then Puerto Rico is the place to tee off. Most of the Island's championship courses were designed by such luminaries as Robert Trent Jones, his son, Rees Jones, Greg Norman, George and Tom Fazio, Jack Nicklaus, Arthur Hill and Puerto Rico's own Chi Chi Rodriguez. Play to your heart's content amid tropical breezes and lush greens with views of the white sand beaches and the ocean's blue waters. Several of our golf courses are also part of world-class resorts, so after a round of golf, you can relax by the pool and gear up for your next game.
