WALKING MAPS

54 Tour Time

Downtown Fort Worth is buzzing with energy both day and night. In fact, livability.com recently named it the top downtown in America in 2014.

BURNETT PARK

This beautiful, two-acre park surrounded by downtown high-rises has play areas, a “great lawn,” bistro-style tables and chairs, and one of the most distinctive public art pieces in the city: Man with a Briefcase.

JFK TRIBUTE

President John F. Kennedy spent his last night in downtown Fort Worth and spoke to a huge crowd the next morning. This stirring tribute includes a larger-than-life statue, historical photos and quotations from JFK.

FORT WORTH CENTRAL LIBRARY

Explore the wonderful world of books at the large kids' area in the Fort Worth Central Library. The library also hosts regular story times, exhibitions and other activities and programs that encourage reading.

SUNDANCE SQUARE PLAZA

Opened in 2013, this fabulous outdoor space is a model of urban revitalization and has become the heart of downtown. The entertainment/business district boasts delightful shopping, 30-plus restaurants, performance and movie theaters, art galleries and more. The Plaza also features sparkling fountains, giant umbrellas and the historic Chisholm Trail Mural, as well as places to relax and people-watch. Seasonal activities include concerts, movies, yoga classes and more.

BIKE SHARING

Downtown has several spots to pick up or drop off a B-cycle, including Sundance Square, City Place, the Central Library and the Omni Hotel Fort Worth.

HIDDEN GEM

Public art in its finest definition, the Fort Worth Water Gardens exists as one of architect Philip Johnson's finest creations, an asymmetrical and angular design of multiple levels comprising walkways, terraces, green spaces and three distinct pools – the aerating, the quiet and the active – accompanied by a symphony of rushing water.

SELFIE STOP

Stand in Sundance Plaza and choose your backdrop, whether that's the historic Tarrant County Courthouse's beautiful clock tower, the Plaza's dancing fountains, the wave wall fountain or the mesmerizing Chisholm Trail Mural.
#FortWorthSelfie

“Visitors are surprised to learn how easily they can walk around downtown’s 35 continuous blocks of hotels, dining, shopping and entertainment. In the same way, the Cultural District contains five leading museums in just a few square blocks. So whether you walk or use one of our 40 bike sharing stations, you’ll discover that Fort Worth is truly connected.”

–BOB JAMESON, PRESIDENT & CEO OF THE FORT WORTH CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU

EMBARGO

What's hotter: the authentic Havana décor or the salsa dancers on the dance floor? Step up to the bar – inlaid with vintage cigar-box lids – and order up authentic Cuban food and cocktails.

©Four Day Weekend

FOUR DAY WEEKEND

Ready to be part of the show? This hilarious comedy troupe performs an improvised show every Friday and Saturday night, complete with audience participation.

©Lars Plougmann

SCAT JAZZ LOUNGE

Head into the alley and down to the basement, and find yourself in one of the coolest jazz clubs in America – a swanky stage for local and national jazz musicians of all stripes.

©Sundance Square

SUNDANCE SQUARE

Shopping downtown is big fun, and the charming streets of Sundance Square are packed with specialty boutiques, gift shops and galleries, restaurants, bars and entertainment venues, 35 blocks worth. Tip: Valet park for free with validation.

©Peter Brothers Hats

PETER BROS. HATS

Started in 1911, Peter Bros. has been creating custom, high-quality hats for generations. Amon Carter used to give away these hats to movie stars and celebrities when they visited Fort Worth.

KIMBELL ART MUSEUM SHOP

If you can't make it to the museum, try this specialty shop in the Omni Fort Worth Hotel. You'll find a unique selection of art books, decorative items, jewelry and gifts.

©Carolyn Cruz

BASS PERFORMANCE HALL

This world-class performance space is home to the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, Fort Worth Opera, the Texas Ballet Theater and the Cliburn Concerts, as well as touring performers and Broadway shows.

JUBILEE THEATRE

This African-American theatre troupe has been pleasing multi-cultural audiences for years with a big variety of plays, from hilarious musicals to serious drama.

SID RICHARDSON MUSEUM

View an amazing collection of Western art, featuring the works of Frederic Remington and Charles M. Russell, as well as their contemporaries. Admission is free.

This casual, community-oriented district, sometimes called “Magnolia,” is packed with locally owned music venues, shops, bars and eateries. It’s home to one of the finest restaurant rows in Fort Worth.

SHIPPING & RECEIVING

A bar on the National Register of Historic Places? Yep. At Shipping & Receiving, you can grab a brew, sit outdoors and watch a premier North Texas band.

THE BEARDED LADY

Opened in 2014, The Bearded Lady has quickly become a local favorite for craft beer and pub food. For the full experience, snag a picnic table seat and soak up the Magnolia street life.

LIVE OAK

This popular concert hall showcases marquee-name touring acts in a 500-seat auditorium. For stellar views and inventive food and drink, head upstairs to the rooftop patio.

THE USUAL

Slip into a retro, wrap-around booth and order up a Prohibition-era cocktail. The way-cool décor, drinks and crowd at this hot spot are anything but the usual.

JUSTIN BOOT OUTLET

Fort Worth is the home of the Justin Boot Company, renowned worldwide for their boot-making skills. Step into this outlet store and you’ll find everything from classic cowboy boots to work boots at deep discounts.

1208 BUILDING

A fun variety of small pop-up boutiques — including Ephemera, Hudson Studios, 2econd Chances and Two Birds, One Stone — are housed in the beautifully restored 1208 Building.

PENDERY’S WORLD OF CHILI AND SPICES

Cooking enthusiasts will revel in the flavor-packed shelves at Pendery’s, where you can find the most comprehensive spice selection. Pendery’s has been the go-to spice shop in Fort Worth for over 130 years.

DICKIES FACTORY OUTLET

Dickies headquarters is located on Vickery Street, and there’s a factory outlet store right next door where you can get bargains on Dickies gear of all varieties.

AMPHIBIAN STAGE PRODUCTIONS

The Amphibian company has a reputation for innovative and challenging theater — one play was performed entirely in the dark!

ARTS FIFTH AVENUE

The very definition of eclectic, Arts Fifth Avenue delivers a dizzying variety of performances and festivals featuring music, visual arts and dance. They also offer classes in performing and visual arts from ages 4 and up.

STAGE WEST

For almost 35 years, Stage West has brought professional, Actors’ Equity theater to Fort Worth audiences. Whether they’re presenting Shakespeare and Shaw or a new experimental drama, the productions are always top-notch.

MAGNOLIA GREEN

You never know what you’ll find at this pretty, one-acre park: food trucks, a full-on music festival or just a few folks relaxing and enjoying the scenery.

BIKE SHARING

The Near Southside has abundant B-Cycle locations, including three on Magnolia at Lipscomb, Henderson and Hurley.

MELT ICE CREAMS

Opened in 2014, this “farm-to-cone” creamery conjures unexpected flavors — Velvet Vegan, anyone? Sourced from local ingredients, a few bites will make you, well, melt.

SINACA STUDIOS

SiNaCa is a public glass studio offering classes and workshops in all forms of glass techniques, from blown glass to kiln-worked. Check out the gallery for works that will blow your mind.

THISTLE HILL & BALL-EDDLEMAN-MCFARLAND HOUSE

Thistle Hill is a three-story Georgian Revival mansion built in 1903 for the eccentric daughter of a cattle baron. Ball-Eddleman-McFarland House, built in 1899, is one of the many Victorian homes of the cattle baron. Both structures offer a throwback to the grand lifestyle of another era.

HIDDEN GEM

The always-crowded, BYOB jewel box of a restaurant on West Magnolia, Nonna Tata speaks of owner-chef Donatella Trotti’s passion for the exquisite, handmade dishes of her family’s home near Lake Como in northern Italy.

SELFIE STOP

Take a seat inside Brewed, considered the locals’ living room for the Near Southside District, and snap yourself sipping a cup of Thai coffee, quaffing a glass of locally made kombucha, sampling a pint of locally brewed Revolver Blood & Honey or nibbling a lemon tart with goat cheese ice cream.

#FortWorthSelfie

"Before you leave Fort Worth, make sure you run through the fountains at our new Sundance Square Plaza in downtown, take a stroll on Magnolia in the Near Southside area and visit a museum in our Cultural District. In Cowtown, adventure awaits you wherever you go!"

-BETSY PRICE, FORT WORTH MAYOR

The purple pride of Texas Christian University (TCU) has been a part of Fort Worth for over 100 years. The beautiful campus and lively district are located half a mile from the Fort Worth Zoo and less than five miles from Downtown/Sundance Square.

THE AARDVARK

A longtime TCU-area hangout, The Aardvark is a popular choice for live music. It has a reputation for booking solid, up-and-coming bands: rock, country, indie and everything in between.

BUFFALO BROS.

This simple, comfortable bar and restaurant caters to TCU sports fans, with TVs in every direction and bar food imported from Buffalo, New York, including wings (of course), beef on weck and bison French onion dip.

PIZZA SNOB

The don't-play-with-your-food rule goes out the window at Pizza Snob, where you're encouraged to experiment with a variety of toppings to build your own delicious pizza.

TCU OFFICIAL BOOKSTORE

It's not just about textbooks. This is the go-to place for TCU Horned Frog apparel for the whole family, as well as TCU-themed gifts and game-day accessories.

UNIVERSITY PARK VILLAGE

This pretty, open-air shopping center is home to stores like the Apple Store, J. Crew, Anthropologie, Banana Republic, Pottery Barn and Williams-Sonoma.

UNIVERSITY PUB

Known simply as "The Pub," this TCU favorite is just a frog's jump from campus. It's small, laid-back and friendly, with cheap drinks and a distinctly collegiate feel.

TCU ART GALLERIES

The Art Galleries at TCU — Moudy Gallery and Fort Worth Contemporary Arts — offer a series of exhibitions, lectures, panel discussions and other programs that engage the university community with the general public.

FORT WORTH ZOO

One of the top five zoos in the nation, the Fort Worth Zoo is home to more than 7,000 native and exotic animals. Cleverly designed exhibits let you get up-close to the animals, including two baby elephants.

LOG CABIN VILLAGE

This authentic mid-19th-century village has a blacksmith shop, one-room schoolhouse, pioneer garden, smokehouse and several historic furnished log-cabin homes, along with historical interpreters in pioneer clothing.

MONNIG METEORITE GALLERY

Want to touch a piece of Mars? You can at the Monnig Meteorite Gallery, which houses one of the largest university-based meteorite collections in the world.

CLEARFORK FOOD PARK

This big, dog-friendly food park is located just off University Drive, right on the Trinity River. In addition to revolving food trucks, there's a permanent cantina serving beer and wine.

TCU

Texas Christian University is one of the most picturesque small universities in the nation. Get a glimpse of university life with a jaunt through campus, or grab some tickets to a high-energy sporting event.

BIKE SHARING

Hop on a B-Cycle on the TCU Campus, at West Berry and University, or at the Trailhead at Clearfork.

HIDDEN GEM

Since 1959, families have loved boarding the Forest Park Miniature Railroad, making 40-minute round-trips along a five-mile loop from the depot, next to the famous zoo, to the Trinity Park Duck Pond, crossing the Clear Fork of the Trinity River on its route.

SELFIE STOP

Head to the Campus Commons on the TCU Campus and stand facing west in front of Frog Fountain, with "Texas Christian University" on the wall just behind you, water splashing down the four stylized leaves above you and, as a distant backdrop, the student center with its tower. #FortWorthSelfie

President Kennedy's Trip to Texas

Experience a distinctive piece of American history at the Hilton Fort Worth, the former Hotel Texas. President Kennedy and the First Lady spent the evening here on November 21, 1963. The following morning, President Kennedy delivered a speech in the hotel's ballroom, before departing to Dallas. Now the events of that day, as well as the life and legacy of President John F. Kennedy can be examined at The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza in Dallas.

THE MAN. THE STORY. THE LEGACY.

The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza chronicles the assassination and legacy of President John F. Kennedy, interpreting and presenting contemporary culture within the context of presidential history. Visit and discover President Kennedy's enduring influence.

Mon Noon – 6 p.m.; Tues-Sun 10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
Open daily except Thanksgiving and Christmas.

OUR BIG BABIES ARE GETTING BIGGER!

Like typical one-year-olds, our elephant calves spend their days playing in the yard, splashing in the water and making enough noise for the neighbors to hear. Come watch Belle & Bowie as they have a trunkful of fun! Only at the Fort Worth Zoo.

FORTWORTHZOO.ORG

Between downtown and the Cultural District, the West 7th area is a sophisticated strip of restaurants, upscale shops and cool nightclubs.

STEEL CITY POPS

Satisfy your sweet tooth with these unique pops made from fresh, all-natural ingredients. The family-owned business creates fruity combinations, such as Blueberry Basil and Cucumber Lime, that will please any palate.

MOVIE TAVERN AT WEST 7TH

Meals and movies are on the menu at the Movie Tavern, where you'll find a state-of-the-art viewing experience with luxurious stadium seating and individual tabletops.

MONTGOMERY PLAZA

Once a huge Montgomery Ward Department Store, this is now a mixed-use development with local and national stores and many family-friendly dining spots.

TORNADO SCULPTURE

At the intersection of Camp Bowie and University, these four steel beams (which once held a billboard) were twisted and bent by the powerful winds of the 2000 Fort Worth tornado.

FORT WORTH FOOD PARK

The city's first food park lets you sample a range of cuisines in a serene setting. Food trucks like Bombay Chopstix and Cajun Tailgators rotate daily.

BIKE SHARING

Pick up or drop off a B-Cycle on West 7th at Norwood, Stayton and Woolery.

HIDDEN GEM

Intentionally understated, Revolver Taco Lounge brings stylish specialties from Mexico's interior to the plate in the form of delectable, delicate tacos cradling tender pork tidbits with pineapple and salsa; ceviche blending red snapper, habanero and orange; chile relleno bathed in walnut cream; and duck breast enveloped in a deep red mole.

SELFIE STOP

When visiting the Movie Tavern, head to its rooftop parking garage for a primo downtown view, with the Trinity Park treetops and soaring arches of the new 7th Street Bridge directly behind you and the looming white Montgomery Plaza (and its glowing red letters) on the left. #FortWorthSelfie

"Simply put, West 7th is a delight. Its metamorphosis from a former expanse of vacant warehouses into a vibrant, thriving place to play is exciting, and it's also big fun to explore. There's such an assortment of eating and drinking and shopping to enjoy, you need at least a week to experience it all."

WRIGHT AT HOME

Peacock Alley Linens, Kravet Furniture and a range of home accents and gifts are featured at this finely merchandised store on the bricks of Camp Bowie.

VETERANS MEMORIAL PARK

This small park is located on the site of the World War I-era military camp the street is named for. It features historical markers, an inspiring monument and an anchor from the USS Fort Worth.

THE BRICKS

Beautiful and a little bumpy, the most famous stretch of Camp Bowie Boulevard is paved with red bricks created in Thurber, Texas. They were first installed in the 1920s and 1930s.

BIKE SHARING

There's a B-Cycle station at the UNT Health Science Center at Camp Bowie and Will Rogers Road.

HIDDEN GEM

Keeping Fort Worth healthy for decades, the Sunflower Shoppe offers an impressive selection of delightful body care products, aromatic essential oils and all the specialty products for gluten-free and vegan lifestyles, with exceptional customer service, too.

SELFIE STOP

Head to Kincaid's Hamburgers, a landmark since 1946, and pose either beneath the vintage "Chas. Kincaid Gro. Market" sign over the front door or head inside and grab a pic while you eat a two-fisted burger, wrapped in an old-fashioned white wrapper, as you stand at one of the antique grocery shelves to eat in the traditional fashion.

This multi-stage music venue hosts a variety of events throughout the year, including Rockin' the River (June–August).

Get your heart pumping on the Trinity Trails. With more than 40 miles of running trails and 17 trailheads, it's easy to get in some exercise and enjoy the outdoors.

Splash in the crisp waters of Burger's Lake, a 30-acre paradise with two sandy beaches lined with large shade trees. Boat and fish on Eagle Mountain Lake, a freshwater oasis, or head to Lake Worth for stand-up paddle boarding thrills.

Easily accessible from the Trinity River Trails, Cowtown Wakepark brings one of the hottest water sports to Fort Worth. No need for a boat; just strap in, grab on and start ripping.

Tee off at one of Fort Worth's many lush public golf courses or opt for an upscale experience at one of the city's country clubs. Improve your swing with a lesson from Jim McLean Golf School.

Nature expeditions await at Tandy Hills, a 160-acre remnant of prairie land touting hundreds of native plant species. Ride, run and recharge along The Trailhead Clearfork's cycling and running trails. For kayaking, hiking and other outdoor adventures, head to Fort Worth Nature Center and Refuge.

Waterpark fun is just a short drive away at Hawaiian Falls, where kids and adults can splash, dive and slide on nearly a dozen rides, including The Torpedo and Hightide Whirlpool.

Have a zen moment with a free yoga session at Sundance Square Plaza in downtown, or practice your downward dog at no cost at nearby Burnett Park.

Fit Worth

Mayor Betsy Price's fitness-based initiative promotes active lifestyles and healthy habits in both kids and adults through competitions and challenges.

"It's something that everyone is embracing," said Leslie Casey, Chair of the Foundation for Wellness, Texas. "FitWorth is unique because of our mayor's involvement, the technology we use to deploy our challenges, and the collaborative nature of our programs." Learn more at fwtxas.org.

Get Moving

Blue Zones Project

Fort Worth is the only Southern city to institute the groundbreaking healthy-city campaign based on making good health choices.

Rolling Town Hall

Bike alongside Mayor Price in a fun, healthy setting, meet neighbors and talk about city happenings in this alfresco town hall meeting on two wheels. Or join Mayor Price in the bike convoy during Tour de Fort Worth, an annual event that gets people cycling around the city on a 21-mile course.

Yoga

Pet-Friendly Fort Worth

Visiting with your pooch? Take man's best friend to Fort Woof, the city's first fenced off-leash dog park. Dogs play with their owners or other canines at one of two large areas.

Let your pet lounge in luxury at Spa Paws Hotel, the only five-star hotel for four-legged guests featuring a boutique, wellness center and café. When Fido needs a treat, head to WAG, a boutique and bakery selling everything from collars and leashes to healthy dog food.

Trinity River Vision

A master plan for the Trinity River, this project will connect every neighborhood in Fort Worth to the Trinity River corridor with new recreational amenities, improved infrastructure, environmental enhancements and major events. The TRV will include Panther Island, a vibrant waterfront neighborhood, expand Gateway Park into a large urban-programmed park, and enhance the Trinity Trails corridor.

Music roots run deep in Fort Worth. Legendary artist Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys defined Western Swing, while visionary jazz saxophonist Ornette Coleman paved the way for new sounds. Singers of today, like Delbert McClinton, Pat Green and Jamey Ice, continue to evolve the genres of country, rock and blues, keeping the local music scene alive and evolving.

Music Festival Round-Up

The Fort Worth Music Festival features local, regional and national talent performing everything from jazz and country to pop-rock and blues. Throw in delicious food and trendy vendors, and you're in for a celebration of all things Fort Worth.

Classical music lovers can enjoy an evening of beautiful melodies performed by the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra at Concerts in the Garden, a popular summer series that takes place at the Fort Worth Botanic Gardens. Over at Magnolia Green, enjoy the region's best live music, tasty food and drinks during Friday on the Green, a monthly concert series held from April to November.

Celebrate the country's birthday and one of Fort Worth's musical legends at Willie Nelson's 4th of July Picnic. Don your best red, white and blue apparel and scoot over to Billy Bob's Texas for a day of live music, local brews and sun-soaked fun.

Chefs to Watch

From the Japanese pub fare of Shinjuko Station, to haute cowboy cuisine classics like Reata, to the melt-in-your-mouth steaks at Del Frisco's Double Eagle Steakhouse, Fort Worth has emerged as an exciting culinary capital – a place to thrill every taste bud. Equally exciting is the recent boom of boutique breweries and distilleries, where Texas tradition combines with modern flair and results in some very tasty local libations.

Who says you can't get extraordinary seafood in North Texas? Chef-owner Bonnell's Waters is one of the most elegant and flavorful restaurants to open in recent years. Don't miss sister restaurant, much-lauded Bonnell's Fine Texas Cuisine.

The chef who put Fort Worth on the culinary map with Lonesome Dove Western Bistro continues to wow at Woodshed Smokehouse. On the banks of the Trinity River, it's arguably the best outdoor patio in town.

Breweries

Fort Worth's oldest micro-brewery, first opened in 2004, now offers nearly a dozen year-round and seasonal beers. Rahr also hosts brewery tours on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The rising star on the local brewery scene, Martin House became an instant sensation with its "Daybreak" beer, an ale brewed with four grains, milk sugar and honey. Think of it as breakfast in a pint glass!

Foodie Faves

Molly McCook

Already celebrated by magazines like Bon Appétit, the chef-owner of the farm-to-table eatery Ellerbe Fine Foods added the ultimate feather to her chef's hat last spring, when she was invited to cook at the James Beard Foundation in New York.

- Dine on the patio overlooking downtown while enjoying cowboy cuisine at Reata.
- Surround yourself with lush gardens and indulge in a margarita at Joe T. Garcia's.
- Sample a chef-driven menu at one of the newest hotspots in West 7th, AF&B.
- Downtown, enjoy modern American cuisine and signature cocktails at GRACE.
- A Stockyards staple since 1947, you can't visit Fort Worth without digging into a big juicy steak from Cattlemen's Steak House, an internationally renowned steak house.
- Hunter Brother's H3 Ranch's Hickory Wood Grill is named one of the best steakhouses in the area. Try the saddle barstools!

Marcus Paslay

The rising star of the Fort Worth food scene, Paslay serves up a dazzling mixture of ambition (foie gras torchon with peaches and granola, anyone?) and down-home charm (fried green tomatoes; fire roasted bone marrow) at the newly opened Clay Pigeon.

©Clay Pigeon

©Clay Pigeon

“Fort Worth is the best place I can imagine for a brewery like ours. It's welcoming to small business, supportive of the 'buy local' movement, and our brewery's location on the Trinity Trails provides us with a great view of downtown.”

— DAVID WEDEMEIER, CO-FOUNDER, MARTIN HOUSE BREWING COMPANY

Distilleries

Panther Island Brewing

Newcomer Panther Island specializes in flavorful beer with funky names, like the Cannonball (a Scottish Strong Ale) and the Allergeez (an American Wheat brewed with Texas honey, chamomile flowers and rose hips).

Nickels Distilling

©Nickels Distilling

Mother and son team Deborah and Trey Nickels began production in spring 2014 on their specialty vodka, TreyMark Black-Eyed Vodka, distilled from black-eyed peas – the first of its kind in the world.

Both traditional Texas whiskey and straight bourbon whiskey are served up at this distillery, housed inside a pre-Prohibition-era warehouse.

day trips

Fun adventures can be found just a short drive outside Fort Worth. Spend a day in these fun and quirky destinations, and then rest your head back in the city.

Clifton

A 90-minute drive south from Fort Worth leads to Clifton, a town on the Bosque River. Find beautiful hand-painted furniture in the Norwegian Collection at the Bosque Museum and a stunning assortment of fine art of the American West at the Bosque Arts Center. Downtown offers the restored 1916 Cliftex Theatre, still showing first-run films. Grab lunch at Bunkhouse BBQ and taste award-winning wines at Red Caboose Winery.

Fossil Rim Wildlife Center

Just over an hour's drive, this 1,700-acre preserve features more than 1,000 endangered animals from five continents. Photograph giraffes, white rhinos, cheetahs, gray zebras and wildebeest as you drive the scenic 9.5-mile route. Then opt for a hike or picnic on the ranch, or head to nearby Loco Coyote for exceptional barbecue and burgers.

Hico

Just 90 minutes southwest of Fort Worth, this hamlet is rumored to have been the last hideout for Billy the Kid. Make time to shop at Blue Star Trading and Homestead for home furnishings; Wiseman House Chocolates for handcrafted sweets; and E is for Ice Cream and Texas Wines and Cheeses.

Granbury

The first county downtown in Texas – only 40 minutes south of Fort Worth – to undergo major restoration, the Hood County Courthouse Square is a showplace, with everything from antique stores and tearooms to a beautifully renovated opera house, whose playbill stays packed with performances.

Albany

A two-hour drive west of Fort Worth lands you in the Shackelford County seat, home to the Old Jail Art Center. After touring the remarkable pre-Columbian collection and artworks by luminaries such as Pablo Picasso and Henry Moore, enjoy a meal at the Icehouse or the Beehive Restaurant and Saloon.

Arlington

It's an easy 20-minute drive to Arlington, where you can book a tour of AT&T Stadium, the $2 billion home of the Dallas Cowboys. Be sure to tour its extraordinary artwork collection, which includes sculpture, paintings and more. Next door, the Globe Life Park, home to the Texas Rangers Baseball Club, provides tours of this beautiful stadium, but you'll want to leave time to visit its neighbors, Six Flags Over Texas – the original – and sister waterpark, Hurricane Harbor.

Denton

Roughly 40 minutes north of Fort Worth, Denton lies at the heart of horse country, offering tours of various horse-breeding farms. The square offers shops and eateries, including the Loophole Pub and Hannah's Off the Square, as well as pieces of Texas heritage, such as Little Chapel in the Woods, a magnificent architectural work on the Texas Woman's University campus.

Weatherford

Only a 30-minute drive west, the Parker County seat features a gorgeous courthouse at the center of town, surrounded by antique shops and good places to eat, such as Fire Oak Grill and Whistle Hill Café. Check out the Peter Pan statue at the public library, shop at First Monday Trade Days and hike the Rails-to-Trails pathway, a 22-mile route atop an old rail bed.

Grand Prairie Premium Outlets

East on Interstate 30, less than a half-hour from Fort Worth, this amazing high-end outlet shopping center brings folks from everywhere for exceptional shopping deals at stores from Bloomingdales and Banana Republic to Michael Kors and White House Black Market. If you're with a group of 15 or more, you can request a free VIP coupon book.

Take Me Home!

Wherever you find yourself in Fort Worth, there's a homegrown souvenir begging to go home with you.

On the Near Southside, pick up a gift box from Hot Damn, Tamales! And a bottle of handcrafted TX Blended Whiskey at Firestone & Robertson. In the Stockyards, grab a pair of custom boots at M.L. Leddy's, and on your way to the West 7th area, consider a handmade Driskill Guitar, made from maple and Brazilian rosewood. Downtown, have Peters Bros. make your custom cowboy hat from assorted materials and designs. On West Vickery, visit Sentimentals to find a handcrafted candle by Fort Worth's Alueur.

Finally, the best taste of Fort Worth is in a jar of salsa. "Mrs. Renfro's is the perfect souvenir to take home because our family has been cooking great products in Fort Worth using local produce for 74 years. From our relishes to our salsas, they all include Fort Worth flavor," says Becky Renfro Borbolla, VP, Renfro Foods, Inc.

Find Mrs. Renfro's at Central Market, Vending Nut Company and major grocery stores.

Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport

Fort Worth is just 17.5 miles from Dallas/Fort Worth (DFW) International Airport. With 1,850 flights daily, DFW Airport serves as a gateway for destinations across the country and around the globe.

DFW Airport is the world's third busiest, serving 60 million customers a year and offering nonstop service to more than 200 destinations worldwide. The airport provides convenient connections with the Skylink high-speed train and unmatched international traveler amenities.

Guest Services

If you need assistance or have questions, ask one of DFW's knowledgeable ambassadors. Friendly volunteers are stationed at Airport Information booths in each terminal.

Automated Passport Control

DFW features 30 Automated Passport Control kiosks to speed up the customs experience.

Currency Exchange

Traveler currency exchange services simplify money handling. There are numerous locations in terminals D and E.

Technology Services

DFW provides free Wi-Fi, plenty of power outlets and a helpful DFW Airport App to search dining, shopping and services by terminal. Complimentary Travel Lounges provide comfortable workstations with outlets at every seat.

Relaxation

Looking to relax during your layover? Visit the free yoga studio near gate D40 for a quick stretch session. Stop by one of the new private Minute Suites, featuring daybeds, office workstations, showers and other amenities for relaxing and rejuvenating. Treat your feet to a quick pedicure at XpressSpa Treatments (D20, D24) or enjoy a refreshing back rub at Massage Therapists (D20, D24).

Lounges

The American Express Centurion Lounge offers complimentary spa services, signature cocktails, Southwestern cuisine and work areas. Kick back in The Club at DFW, a spacious lounge with panoramic views overlooking the runway. Admirals Clubs can be found on Terminals A–D, and offer work stations, complimentary Wi-Fi, exercise facilities and complimentary food and drinks. Large groups can reserve space at designated Group Zones, which can accommodate anywhere from 20–200 people.

Shopping and Dining

DFW Airport is home to more than 200 specialty shops and retailers. The reopening of Terminal A introduced a number of new dining and retail options, and is part of the $2.3 billion renovation program scheduled for the next seven years.

Don't miss the latest brands and styles at Destinations, Texas-themed gifts at Lone Star Attitude and cutting-edge electronics at InMotion Entertainment. International travelers can enjoy a refund on sales tax paid on Texas merchandise at TaxFree Shopping.

The airport also boasts delicious dining options. Grab a great steak and fresh seafood at Cool River Cafe, taste traditional Asian cuisine at Ling & Louie's or pick up a sweet treat at Icebox Cafe.

Connecting the World

- Serves 200+ destinations worldwide
- Nonstop access to destinations in Asia, Australia, Europe and the Middle East
- Convenient flights to five Canadian and 34 Latin American destinations, including 19 in Mexico City
- 149 destinations in major U.S. cities

(re)inventing your shopping and dining experience.

Great brands are coming soon to Terminal A at DFW Airport.

The Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport Terminal Renewal and Improvement Program (TRIP) is underway. Which means your travel experience is about to get better than ever. The first development phase is taking place in Terminal A and will include an exciting new roster of concessionaires, from national brands to the best local restaurants and shops in the region.
